INDEX.

A

Aberdeenshire, Reports from, 96, 223, 353, 471.

Agricultural Intelligence, 95, 221, 350, 469.

Agricultural Publications, Review of, 67, 197, 337, 461.

Aiton, William Esq., his Survey of Buteshire reviewed, 337.

Annandale, Upper, Reports from, 97, 223, 353, 472.

Arran, remarks in a Tour through the island of, 418.

B

Banffshire, reports from, 99, 473.

Banks, Sir Joseph, letter regarding Hill and Bundy's machines, 185.

Banks, Saving, Scottish, incapable of deriving aid from Parliamentary interference, 129—remarks on Mr Rose's Bill for the protection and encouragement of, 133, 172—management of in Peeblesshire, 134.

Barilla compared with kelp, 208.

Beads, Mrs Lovi's, for ascertaining the specific gravity of liquids, 219.

Bernard, Sir Thomas, on the operation of the salt-duties, 324.

Berwickshire, reports from, 99, 226, 355, 474.

Blane, Sir Gilbert, on the advantages of middlemen in the sale of corn and provisions, 48.

Blythe's Improver Improved, account of, 15—its republication recommended, 24.

Border Agricultural Society, proceedings of, 179, 408.

Buckinghamshire, reports from, 246, 377, 496.

Buteshire, situation and extent of, 340—state of property in, ib.—tenantry of, 341—arable lands, 342—grass lands, 344—live stock, 345—population, 348.

C

Caithness, improvements in, 14.

Caledonian Canal, progress of, 234.

Canal, one at Forfar proposed, 362—remarks on the inutility of, 402.

Cattle, cure for several diseases in, 28, 35, 288, 432.

Chaff-cutter, account of the advantages of a, 273.

Clay-burning practised in Yorkshire, 383.

Corn, on the decrease in the quantity of, after being stacked, 27—advantages of middlemen in the sale of, 48—observations on Wilson's Inquiry into the high prices of, 58—alleged surplus growth of, in Britain, examined, 72—fall in the prices of chiefly occasioned by the sudden diminution of the paper currency, 77—average prices of, 96, 222, 352, 470—dried by mixing it with husks from the kiln, 144—instruction concerning the making of bread from damaged, 149.

Corn Laws, observations on, 86.

Cottage System, inquiry into the advantages ascribed to, 40.

Country, state of the, in December 1816, by Sir John Sinclair, 1.

Cumberland, reports from, 247, 498.

Curwen, J. C. Esq., his plan for associating the laborious classes as subscribers to a National Benefit Society, 190—account by, of the Friendly Societies at Workington, 195.

D

Davy, Edmond, Esq, on the means of improving the flour of crop 1816, 156.

Devizes corn-market, regulations of, 44.

Devonshire, letters from, 249, 498.

Diseases of cattle. See Cattle.

Distillery, observations on the recent alterations of the laws concerning, 8—historical notices of, in Scotland, 441—quantity of spirits supposed to be consumed in Scotland, 10.

Downie's chaff-cutter, account of, 273.

Draining, surface, remarks on, 354.

Dumfriesshire, reports from, 112, 229, 358, 477.

E

Engravings of a Leicester ram, 128—of the water-wheel at Blair-Drummond and of Blair-Drummond moss, 257—of kilns used in Russia for drying corn in the straw, 390.

Experiments made with the grain of crop 1816, for the purpose of determining its fitness for seed, 283, 441.

F

Farming Society of Ireland, notices of, 171.

Farmer's capital, remarks on, 85—mode of assisting, 93.
Fiars, report of a committee of the county of Lanark concerning, 297, 448.
Fifeshire, reports from, 103, 230, 359, 478.
Fiorin, remarks on, by Dr Richardson, 12—experiments in the culture of, in Scotland, 218.
Fitzherbert's Boke of Husbandry, account of, 136.
Flax and Hemp, method of breaking and preparing, 183—expense and produce of an acre, 185.
Flour, on the means of improving, 156.
Forfarshire, reports from, 104, 231, 361, 480.
French Academy, instructions by a committee of, concerning the making of bread from damaged corn, 149.

G

Glasgow, letter from, 106, 236, 363, 481.
Googe's Whole Arte and Trade of Husbandrie, account of, 289.
Grain, causes of the late depression in the price of, 31.
Grub, observations on the natural history and recent ravages of the, 315—its depredations prevented by salt mixed with seed-corn, 439.

H

Harrow, Morton's revolving, 46.
Highland Society, suggestions by, regarding seed-corn, 36—remarks on the review of the IVth vol of the Transactions of, 66—Transactions of, Vol. V. Part I. reviewed, 207.
Hill and Bundy's machines for preparing flax and hemp, 183—letter from Sir Joseph Banks concerning, 185.
Hogg, James, on the present state of sheep farming in Scotland, 144.
Horses, experiments on the economy of the feeding of, 215.

I

Inverness-shire, reports from, 107, 233, 483.
Ireland, notices regarding the Farming Society of, 171—Statistical Account of, Vol. I. reviewed, 197.

K

Keith, Dr G. Skene, his account of Mr Downie's chaff-cutter, 273.
Kelp, on the manufacture of, 206.
Kelso, new cattle markets at, 182.
Kincardine-Moss, situation of, 258—ancient vessels found in, 259—mode of floating off, 262—tenants settled on, ib.—wheel for raising water, 265—present state of the population and improvement of, 271.
Kincardineshire, reports from, 109, 235, 364, 484.
Kirkcudbright, reports from, 242, 365.

L

Lamlash, island, harbour, and village of, 419.
Lanark, report of the committee of the county of, relating to the procedure in striking the fiars of crop 1816, 297—evidence said to be defective, 299—and improperly selected, 303—hints for improving the procedure, 303—reasons of dissent from, by the Sheriff-depute, 392—some observations by a Committee of the Presbytery of Hamilton on, 448.
Lanarkshire, reports from, 107, 367, 487.
Lancaster, letters from, 118, 249, 378, 499.
Langholm, letters from, 111, 243.
Linseed-cake, use of, in Norfolk, 122.
Little's observations on sheep, and sheep-farms, review of, 461.
Liverpool, letters from, 119, 250, 380, 500.
Lothian, East, reports from, 111, 237, 368, 494.
——— Mid, reports from, 239, 370, 488.
——— West, reports from, 113, 239, 488.
Lovi's beads for discovering the quality of milk, 219.

M

M'Culloch, J. R. Esq., on the causes of the late depression in the price of grain, 31.
Mason, W. S. Esq., review of his Statistical Account of Ireland, Vol. I. 197.
Morayshire, reports from, 240, 489.
Morton's revolving harrow, letters attesting its utility, 46.
Moss of Kincardine, 257.

N

Norfolk, reports from, 121, 252, 381, 502.
Northumberland, reports from, 123, 252, 382, 503.
Nottinghamshire, reports from, 124, 253, 504.

O

Observations for the use of Landed Gentlemen, by Rusticus, review of, 85.
Owen, Mr, his plan for the relief of the poor, 187—remarks on his New View of Society, 433.

P

Peebles, proceedings under the Thirlage Commutation Act in, 319.
Perthshire, reports from, 114, 240, 373, 490.
Plantations, observations on, 161, 275.
Poor, plans for the relief of, 186.

Poor-Laws, an important case decided in Nottinghamshire, 125.
Potatoe, the nose end of, best for seed, 26.
Preston's Observations on the State of the Nation reviewed, 67—alleged excess in the growth of corn denied, 72.

Q

Queries regarding red clover, 384.

R

Ragwort, notices regarding, as food for sheep, 196, 279, 400.
Ram, Leicester, engraving of, 128.
Rapeseed Cake, use of, as manure in Norfolk, 122.
Renfrew, state of the crop in the county of, in July 1816, 287.
Rent, regulated by the price of victual, 24.
Review of agricultural publications, 67, 197, 337, 461.
Review of the 4th volume of the Highland Society's Transactions, remarks on, 66.
Robertson, Geo. Esq. on potatoes for planting, 26.
Ross-shire, reports from, 115, 244, 491.
Russia, plan of preserving grain in, by kiln-drying it on the straw, 388.

S

Salt, recommended to be mixed with seed-corn as a preservative against the grub, 439.
Salt-duties, on the operation of, 324.
Saving-Banks, incapable of deriving aid from Parliamentary interference, 129.
Seed, experiments on the fitness of corn for, crop 1816, 283, 441.
Seed-corn, suggestions offered by the Highland Society of Scotland regarding, 36.
Shamrock, botanical name of, 280.
Sheep, mountain, on the advantages of providing hay for, in the spring months, 415.
Sheep-farming, on the present state of, in Scotland, 144.
Sinclair, Sir John, on the state of the country, 1.
Spirits, quantity of, supposed to be consumed in Scotland, 10.
Stack, decrease of the quantity of grain in, 27.
Stirlingshire, reports from, 116, 245, 374, 492.
Stolen Goods, on warrants to search for, 280.
Storing British grain recommended, 385.

T

Talavera Wheat, account of, 255.
Taylor, S. Esq. his account of Fitzherbert's Boke of Husbandry, 136—and of Googe's Whole Arte and Trade of Husbandrie, 289.
Tax Property, amount of, 1—remarks on, 411.
Thirlage, observations on the act for the commutation of, in Scotland, 319.
Thrashing-Mill, small, account of, 30—accidents occasioned by ill constructed ones, 286.
Trees, observations on the planting of, 161, 275.
Trigonometrical Survey, 362.
Turnip-crop improved by lime, 144.
Turnip-sowing machine, faults of, 36.
Tusser's Five Hundred Pointes of Good Husbandrie, account of, 455.
Tweeddale, reports from, 376, 493.
Tweedside agricultural society, proceedings of, 228.
Tytler, W. Fraser, Esq. experiments by, on the feeding of horses with whins, 215.

W

Wales, letter from, 125.
Warrants to search for stolen goods, remarks on, 280.
Weather, register of the, 114, 241, 374, 491.
Wheat, notices regarding the morbid appearances of, in summer 1816, 166—drilled crop of, in the county of Haddington, 214.
Whins employed in feeding horses by Mr Tytler, 215—and in the British army in Spain, 218.
Wilson's Inquiry into the High Prices of Corn and Labour, observations on, 58.
Wiltshire, report from, 126.

Y

Yorkshire, East Riding, reports from, 382, 505.
——— West Riding, ——— 127.

END OF VOLUME EIGHTEENTH.

No. LXXIII. will be Published on the first Monday of February 1818.

D. Willison, Printer, Edinburgh.